

Leave the New Jersey Do Not Call Law in effect. We don't want sales calls at home. If there is a service I want or need, I will call them. If you change the law, we will all have to block our phones. They are ruthless and call at all hours of the day and night...